

DON'T LIKE MASKS.

Positively Refuse to Wear Them in Theatres.

Columbia, Feb. 22.—Masks as a protection against influenza germs are not the least bit popular in Barnwell, according to a telegram received by the state health department yesterday from A. B. Patterson, chairman of the Barnwell board of health.

The chairman wires as follows: "The local health board has passed regulations with regard to influenza requiring the wearing of masks in theatres and barber shops. Patrons will not wear masks. Advise me how to compel them to do so and enforce the regulations."

Dr. C. V. Akin, assistant state health officer, communicated with Barnwell with regard to the matter and it seems that the town has not been quarantined. School children, it seems, wear the masks as a precautionary measure against the disease. Unless the disease becomes prevalent in Barnwell, the state health authorities will probably act only in an advisory capacity.

Masks were worn to some extent during the fearful epidemic in 1918-19, but they somehow gave the wearer a slightly dissipated appearance, and some of them were of such size that the wearers seemed to be suffering from toothache and unmasked pedestrians were sometimes inclined to poke fun at the wearers asking such frivolous questions as "Who hit you on the jaw?" Masks also caused no little inconvenience to tobacco smokers and to see a confirmed chewer attempting to adjust his mask while expectorating was a never failing source of amusement to wayfarers.

J. CLIFTON RIVERS ELECTED.

State Warehouse Commissioner By General Assembly.

Columbia, Feb. 19.—The election of J. Clifton Rivers, of Chesterfield, as State Warehouse Commissioner, the passage of the Atkinson bill enlarging the powers of the South Carolina Public Service Commission and the sending of the general appropriation bill, carrying a total of $5,833,705.70 and a twelve-mill levy, to the Senate were the outstanding features of the morning session of the House of Representatives.

J. Clifton Rivers was unanimously elected to succeed the late Capt. W. G. Smith, for a term of four years. He was unopposed, his only contender, A. A. Richardson, of Columbia, not allowing his name to be introduced. The election of Mr. Rivers took but a minute to be consummated after he had been nominated by W. R. Bradford of York, chairman of the ways and means committee.

The new warehouse commissioner was born at Mt. Croghan, Chesterfield county, January 27, 1876, and was graduated at the Chesterfield High school in 1892 and from Wofford College in 1894. He married Mary E. Allen, of Mt. Croghan, September 1, 1901, and is the father of ten children. Mr. Rivers has been a farmer in Chesterfield county all his life and is one of the leading agriculturists of his section.

Many a Bamberg Reader Will be Interested.

When people read about the cures made by a medicine endorsed from far away, is it surprising that they wonder if the statements are true? But when they read of cases right here at home, positive proof is within their reach, for close investigation is an easy matter. Read Jamboree endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills.

J. H. Murphy, farmer, Elm St., says: "In my estimation, Doan's Kidney Pills are the best kidney remedy on the market and I can honestly recommend them. I haven't had occasion to use any Doan's Kidney Pills for several years, but I clearly remember the good I derived from them when last I used them. I had a lameness in my back and my kidneys were disordered, causing me much annoyance. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they completely cured me of this trouble and put my kidneys in good shape again, so I am glad to endorse this remedy. Anyone having trouble with their kidneys should try Doan's Kidney Pills."
